Re: BARCINAS, Delfina M.
USDC Cr. Cs. No. 05-00007-001

REQUEST TO TRAVEL

Dear Judge Munson,

Delfina M. Barcinas was sentenced on May 31, 2005 by Your Honor for Conspiracy to Commit Bank Fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 371 and 1344. She received a sentence of five years probation with conditions to include that she not commit another federal, state, or local crime; not unlawfully possess a controlled substance; refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance; submit to one drug test within 15 days of placement on probation and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter; cooperate in the collection of DNA; comply with the standard conditions of supervision; prohibited from incurring new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without the permission of the probation officer unless she is in compliance with the payment schedule; provide the probation officer access to any and all requested financial information; pay restitution in the amount of $8,081.25; and pay a $100 special assessment fee. Her term of probation commenced on May 31, 2005.

Ms. Barcinas is requesting to travel to Seattle, Washington, on December 19, 2006, to join her husband, Edward Barcinas, who relocated to Fort Lewis, Washington, on September 29, 2006, for a three year active duty term in the U.S. Army Replacement Company. She will be accompanied by their three children. She had requested a transfer of supervision to the Western District of Washington, and this is currently being investigated. On November 28, 2006, this Officer spoke with Western Washington U.S. Probation Officer Brian Johnson, who stated that he has been in communication with Edward Barcinas, and authorized Ms. Barcinas' travel to their district on December 19, 2006.

Ms. Barcinas has complied with all conditions and instructions imposed on her with the exception of a March 9, 2006 Informational Report, in which she failed to inform this Officer as instructed of her travel from Rota to Saipan, Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands. No action was requested for this violation as a warning had been issued. She completed her urinalysis requirement on January 31, 2006, and submitted to a DNA sample of her blood on March 15, 2006. In addition, she paid her special assessment fee on May 31, 2005 and restitution obligation on June 13, 2005. Ms. Barcinas receives disability retirement from the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Island Government.

It is respectfully recommended that Delfina Barcinas be granted permission to travel. While in Washington, Ms. Barcinas will be supervised by U.S. Probation Officer Brian Johnson.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANK MICHAEL CRUZ

Chief U.S. Probation Officer
